'A FIXED CONCENTRATION OF MIND MUST BE ENCOURAGED IF YOU WANT TO HAVE SUCCESS.'

—WYNN WESTCOTT ("N.O.M.")
IN RITUAL MAGIC OF THE GOLDEN DAWN
(Description on p.19)

Practical advice? From an associate of Aleister Crowley? Certainly!

Because, for all the mystery and mysticism surrounding the mysterious "Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn," one thing was clear from the outset: Knowledge requires study; and study requires application.

That's especially true in the field of personal growth and exploration. Every hour devoted to study pays off in a widening of our personal horizons: a broader outlook and (perhaps most important of all) an increased willingness to take a look at the world from another person's point of view—whereby we attain much greater understanding.

And to that end, we've searched the world for objects and study aids that many have found helpful to the attainment of personal growth: thoughtful books and engaging tapes, gift ideas and decorative accessories—even objets d'art!—designed to help you make the most of your personal journey toward fulfillment and self-discovery.

We think the search has been worth it! Bon voyage!

TOGETHER WE CELEBRATE LIGHT, LIFE, LOVE!

A. HAIL, NEFERTITI! Presenting one of the most spectacular museum reproductions we've ever seen! As the wife of Pharaoh Ikhnaton of Egypt's XVIII Dynasty (and a ruler in her own right), Queen Nefertiti was thought to have disappeared from the records about 12 years after her marriage—but this bust proves otherwise! Faithfully reproduced from a copy of the 20" limestone original, this magnificent sculpture rests in exquisite balance upon a slab of genuine, polished marble. Her Majesty's features have been copied to the smallest detail, including the chipped portions of the headpiece and chips at the rims of the ears. A substantial, museum-worthy sculpture for home, office, or business! Made in USA. (Please allow 4–6 weeks for delivery.) Hydrostone on marble base. 13 lbs., 13½" high.
P22-994 Bust of Nefertiti $169

Exquisitely detailed in antiqued sterling silver, the cross-handled dagger—held in place by a tiny friction lock—actually extracts from the sheath. Look closely and you'll see a 3mm garnet (the gemstone of strength and purity!) twinkling at the end of the dagger's hilt. Handcrafted in USA. 1½" long on 20" chain. A Pyramid Exclusive!

Built around a handpainted wooden shaft, three colors of soldered wire create a swirling solar pattern that holds a misty cabochon of spectrum-reflecting glass. Makes boredom disappear at the wave of your hand! (No two wands are exactly alike; please allow for slight variations; bubble soap not included.) Handcrafted in USA. 18¼" high. A Pyramid Exclusive!

First, invoke the source you wish to communicate with. E. MEET 'THE AUTUMN MAN.' There, beneath the elm tree—in the dappled sunlight, through the leaves: Behold the spirit of the forest—and the life of any garden! Seated upon his blanket of ivy, "Autumn Man" points the way for travelers on his path. Inspired by the "Green Man" imagery of Great Britain (transplanted to America as familiar architectural details in Manhattan and Chicago), sculptor Ken Memoli created this imposing, arboreal presence to grace your home and garden. Cast in a solid composition of granite-like hydrostone and resin, the statue has a felt-dotted base for indoor, tabletop display yet is durable enough to withstand the outdoor elements all year round. Made in USA. 19 lbs., 16" high.
